The Agency of the Inspector General for Taxes, Revenues and Parafiscal Contributions
I.T.R.C.

Expresses gratitude for the participation of

Dr. ESPERANZA BUITRAGO DIAZ

As speaker in the panel "Control of corruption risks in information management," held on November 2nd, 2023, as part of the event:

"International instruments for fiscal transparency and the fight against fraud and corruption."

Her engaging presentation on the "Ethical and Legal Implications in Managing Tax Information" was both informative and inspiring. With a comprehensive overview of the legal landscape, insightful exploration of challenges, and analysis of case law from various countries, she left a lasting impact on all participants, fostering a deeper understanding and critical view for this complex subject matter.

This event was organized in collaboration with the Technical Assistance Office (OTA) of the U.S. Department of the Treasury and provided an opportunity to share experiences, significant learnings, and best practices in the fight against fiscal corruption in the tax administrations of participating countries.
