Funding & facilitating innovation

by Benedikt Stolze

1. Humans are creatures of habit, this also applies to corporate decision-makers.
2. With an overabundance of information comes the challenge of differentiating what is relevant and what is irrelevant.
3. In the context of intrapreneurship, support can also be interference.
4. Intra-company networks allow innovation in large organizations to flourish.
5. For as long as firms intend to generate profits, management accounting research will remain relevant to practitioners.
6. Technology changes everything. In management accounting, technology only changes terminology – nowadays they call it data analytics.
7. The greatness of management accounting lies in the breadth that comes with countless adjacent research fields.
8. If top management does not value intrapreneurs in the organization, the problem is not with the intrapreneurs, it's with the top management.
9. Strategy is easy, execution is hard.
10. A dissertation is just like a party on a weeknight.
